

Crash Injuries Kill Developer

Samuel Genis, 58, president of Store Properties, Inc., proposed developer of the Airport Triangle shopping center, died at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital Friday of injuries received in an automobile accident the day before.

Genis was injured when an automobile driven by his wife, Sayde, was involved in a collision with one driven by Mrs. Mary E. Anderson of Los Angeles at 8th St. and Crenshaw. The three were treated at Georgia Street Receiving Hospital and Genis was later moved to Cedars of Lebanon.

Funeral services for Mr. Genis were held yesterday afternoon at the Home of Peace Memorial Park.

Obituaries

Dennie Hutchinson

Saturday rites were held for Dennie Elizabeth Hutchinson, 78, of 2638 Jefferson St., at Stone and Myers Chapel, with the Rev. Ted Brook officiating. She died Wednesday.

A native of Texas, she lived in California for 30 years. She was a member of the Dominguez Methodist Church. Burial was in Green Hills.

She is survived by her husband, Samuel; a son, Samuel V. Hutchinson, of Wilmington; five daughters, Annie Peterson, of Torrance, Gertrude Jackson, of El Paso, Tex., Amy Sells, of Portland, Ore., Alice Keeley, of Wilmington, and Edith Turner, of Norfolk, Va.; and grandchildren, Mrs. M. E. Hall, of Long Beach; Walter Roberts, of Downey; Thelma Klirks, of Yuma, Ariz.; W. O. Lynn, Mrs. A. C. Strain, and R. R. Jackson, all of El Paso.

Subdivision Ok'd

The Regional Planning Commission Tuesday approved a 24-lot subdivision located northwest of Carson St. and Avalon Blvd., in the Carson area. Susan Enterprises, Inc. is the developer of the four-acre plot.

NEW TEACHERS FETED . . . Part of the more than 200 new Torrance teachers are shown here as they were treated to a luncheon Thursday at the American-Standard cafeteria as guests of the Retail Merchants Assn. Mayor Albert Isen, Chamber President Paul Loranger, Retail Merchant President Carl C. Duncan, and School Superintendent J. H. Hull welcomed the group to Torrance. Following the luncheon, the group was given a tour of Torrance.

Boy Resting at Home After Recent Accident

Six-year-old John Tyrell, who received a fractured skull when hit by a car recently on Ainsworth Ave., is reportedly resting comfortably at home, according to his mother, Mrs. V. C. Tyrell, 3760 W. 170th St.

The lad was struck by a car, driven by Loretta C. Ryan, while walking on Ainsworth, between 171st and 172nd St.

He was taken to a San Pedro hospital following the accident, but returned home after treatment.

AS MODERN AS TOMORROW

Does going to church seem to you old-fashioned? Well, it is, for worship is as old as creation, yet ever-new. In church buildings before the fourteenth century there were no seats. Worshippers stood, or sat on cold damp floors. Later, three-legged stools were used.

Today, churches compare with our finest buildings in modern beauty, comfort, and convenience.

Our speech habits have changed with advancing generations. Scriptural style, too, has changed, yet neither meaning nor intent has been altered. The Bible's message remains the same—a gospel of good news filled with faith, hope, and love—for you, the same as for your forefathers.

Then be old-fashioned. Go to church. Find for yourself a faith that is steadfast—"the same yesterday, today, and forever,"—yet modern as tomorrow.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
